Protegra Awarded "Best in Business Practices" by Manitoba BUSINESS Magazine

Winnipeg, Canada - Protegra is pleased to announce that it has been awarded the Manitoba BUSINESS Magazine's "Best in Business Practices" award. Formal presentation of the award was made at the "18th Annual Entrepreneur of the Year and Best in Business Practices Awards Banquet" held on May 31st, 2006.

The award follows several achievements including placing 29th on the Manitoba BUSINESS Magazine list of fastest growing companies and being named as a finalist in the Outstanding Mid-sized Business category by the Manitoba Chamber of Commerce for its annual Business Excellence Award.

Protegra CEO Wadood Ibrahim indicates that "This type of peer recognition is extremely meaningful to Protegra. It is formal acknowledgement of the dedicated people at Protegra who are passionate and creative professionals. Our innovative approaches, which empower people and set them up for success, differentiate Protegra from its competition. Protegra is organized around people, not positions."

"This award provides external validation of our effective business practices. We are organized around our clients, which helps us deliver the most value to them. And finally, we are rigorous in our strategic planning and execution, which enables us to deliver high value to both our clients and our employees."
