Protegra ranks sixth in Canada as a Great Place to Work[®]

Ranked one of the best in Canada for a third year in a row

Winnipeg, Canada – Protegra has been recognized as one of this year’s top 75 Best Workplaces in Canada. Protegra ranks sixth on the list and is the third year they have been included in the study.

The Best Workplaces designation represents a company with a distinct culture that continues to maintain good relationships throughout the entire organization and ensures that employees trust the people they work with and have pride in what they do.

“It’s great to see consistency in these rankings, it validates our approach to continue to focus on building Protegra’s culture,” says Wadood Ibrahim, CEO of Protegra. “To be ranked among the top companies in Canada, three years in a row, is a great honour for Protegra.”

This list of “Best Workplaces in Canada” is compiled by Great Place to Work[®] Institute Canada at no charge to applicants. The competition process is based on two criteria: two-thirds of the total score comes from a 57-statement survey completed by a random selection of employees, along with their open-ended comments about their organization; the remaining one-third of the score comes from an in-depth review of the organization’s culture, including an evaluation of HR policies and procedures. This offers a rigorous representation of the organization from an employee perspective, and an overall portrait of the workplace culture. Together, they provide crucial data relative to the five trust-building dimensions of a great place to work[®]: credibility, respect, fairness, pride, and camaraderie.

This year’s list received over 200 nominations and approximately 41,000 employees (actual number is 40,621) participated in the 2010 “Best Workplaces in Canada” survey.

Protegra is a management consulting and software development company based out of Winnipeg, Canada.
